

A man and a woman are embracing in the foreground, looking up at a red balloon floating in the dark night sky. The man is wearing a dark t-shirt and shorts, and the woman is wearing a striped shirt and brown pants. In the background, a large crowd of people is gathered, some sitting on the ground and others standing, watching the event. The scene is illuminated by streetlights and the glow of the night sky.

Magic without tricks

The goal is to create magical moments that go beyond simple magic tricks, shared moments of wonder that remind us of the importance of being together.

The show is about:

Magic

Comedy

Interaction

Connection

Street performance is a way of life for Stefano, it's a way of seeing the world through different eyes.

Stefano brings the art of magic to the streets and uses it as a means of expressing himself through his show Voilà 'magic without tricks' -

Magic is the means, entertainment is the form, and improvisation is the dialogue.

A specific street performance which emphasises what makes these shows unique: The audience.

A collective performance, a way to feel like children again and to let go...
